

"LET THERE BE" ByAstarius

Let there be God capstone of my soul
Unfailing Spirit fulfill my goals
Let there be Power in the word of my mouth
I conquer with Faith dissolve fear and doubt
Let there be Wisdom as the fuel of my knowledge
Let it be ablaze within my heart
I must be consistent in the game of life
That Wisdom may finish, what knowledge did start
Let there be Love in the work of my hand
My Life as a blessing unto God and Man
Let there be Peace as the wings of my mind
Oh Sun of Serenity around me shine
Let there be Joy of Truth abubbling in my Soul
Oh destroyer of sadness come make me whole
Let there be Abundance raining down upon me
My Life now Rich with Prosperity
And there is the fulfillment of Let There Be
For Life will always give me
But as far, as I can See
Let there be, Let there be, Let there be
And there is, And there was
And there Ever Shall Be
